Proof is in the Pudding with St. Elmo Steak House's Blueberry Bread Pudding
Proceeds from the sale of dessert to benefit the Jim and Cheryl Caldwell Foundation

INDIANAPOLIS - World-renowned St. Elmo Steak House will donate $2 from every sale of its Colts Blue & White Bread Pudding to the Jim and Cheryl Caldwell Foundation from now until the end of the season.

Best known for its shrimp cocktail and steak, St. Elmo's savory dish consists of luscious blueberry white chocolate bread pudding, bourbon cream sauce and ice cream.

"We feel like it's the right thing to do to help our children and community," said Craig Huse, co-proprietor St. Elmo Steak House. "We are showing our blue and white pride."

Established in 2009 by Colts Coach Jim Caldwell and his wife Cheryl, the foundation focuses on "Preparing Young Minds for Advancement in the 21st Century" by creating innovative digital technology community centers to enrich children's learning potentials.

Since 1902, St. Elmo Steak House has offered guests perfectly aged steaks, tender pork chops, superb guest service and its notorious shrimp cocktail. For many first-time, unsuspecting guests who order St. Elmo's signature shrimp cocktail, the "head rush" of horseradish is an unforgettable experience.

St. Elmo is an independent restaurant in Indianapolis and is only open for dinner. Sister restaurant, Harry & Izzy's, shares the same world-class service and some of the same classic dishes such as the world-famous shrimp cocktail. To make a reservation at St. Elmo Steak House, call 317.635.0636 or visit stelmos.com or at Harry & Izzy's, call 317.635.9594 or visit harryandizzys.com.
